DETAILED ACTION

1. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

2. Applicant's arguments filed 02/28/03 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. See the explanations below.

3. Claims 1-42 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Castro et al '038 in view of Korgel et al .

The cited prior arts are of record in the previous communication. Applicant takes the position that "a prima facie case of obviousness has not been established. There is no motivation or suggestion to look to Korgel as suggested by the Examiner" (Emphasis added). It is the Examiner's position that Applicant's argument is not convincing and does not distinguish the claims from the disclosures of the cited prior arts as explained earlier. Specifically, Applicant's attention is directed to the teaching or motivation in the secondary reference. The secondary reference clearly teaches that "growth of nanocrystals in surfactant bilayer vesicles(e.g. liposomes) may provide a more rationally based method to produce particles of predetermined size, shape, and cryatallinity" (emphasis added). It is the Examiner's position the teaching above would have clearly motivated one of ordinary skill in the art to prepare a functionalized, encapsulated fluorescent naocrystal as claimed.

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 1711

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
